

JOHNSON MATTHEY DOEL (JMDOEL) STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

1. INTERPRETATION

#contract means any contract for the purchase of goods, incorporating these conditions: #goods" and/or #services" means the goods and/or services agreed in the contract to be purchased, #we", #us" and #our" mean or refer to JMDOEL: #you" and #your" mean or refer to the supplier from whom we purchase the goods or services. Each provision of these conditions is to be construed as a separate provision applying and surviving even if one or other of them is held void or unenforceable.

2. Acceptance and variation of conditions

The following conditions and the provisions of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, where not inconsistent with these conditions, shall apply to all our orders for the purchase of goods except to the extent that they are varied by the terms of the order. These conditions also apply mutatis mutandis where the order is for the provision of services and the provisions of the supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 where not inconsistent with these conditions shall apply. If the terms and conditions stated in the supplier's acceptance of the order or in any other communication of the supplier relating to the order are inconsistent with the conditions of the order or contain a provision purporting to override these conditions, the supplier shall be deemed to have accepted these conditions if he supplies goods in compliance or purported compliance with the order. No change to these conditions will be valid unless in writing and signed by us. In entering into the contract you do not rely on any express or implied representation made by us and any representation does not form part of the contract or a collateral contract.

3. Validity

We will accept no responsibility for any order which is not provided on our authorised printed order forms by an employee of JMDOEL who is authorised to approve such an order.

4. Variations of order

No variation from the specifications contained in the order will be permitted by us unless such variation shall previously have been approved in writing by our Purchasing Department. In particular, but without limitation, no price increase (arising from whatever cause) will be accepted without such prior approval.

5. Delivery

All goods shall be delivered to us carriage paid and, in the event of the goods not being delivered to us by the delivery date specified in the order (time being of the essence), then such goods shall at our option be delivered by express service at the supplier's cost. We will accept no responsibility for any goods delivered to us without an advice note giving full details and quoting our order number (as stated on the order). Labels must also bear our Order Number and the supplier's name.

6. Packing

All goods must be packed so as to reach us in good condition and in compliance with all applicable legislation and regulations and Johnson Matthey's packaging standards. Unless otherwise agreed, packaging will be non-returnable. We reserve the right to reject goods damaged in transit.

7. Passing of Property and Risk

The property and risk in the Goods shall pass to us on delivery at the address specified in the order.

8. Payment

8.1 Unless otherwise stated in the order, the price quoted by the supplier shall be deemed to be all inclusive for example, but not limited to, of all taxes, duties, freight, insurance and packaging charges.

8.2 Provided invoices are submitted within three days of the goods having been dispatched or the services having been completed to our satisfaction, payment will normally be made by the end of the month following that of delivery or completion.

8.3 Payment by us for any of the goods ordered shall not constitute any admission by us as to the performance by the supplier of his obligations and shall not constitute a waiver of any of our rights hereunder, nor shall such payment terminate any of the supplier's warranties.

9. Supplier's Warranty and Default

9.1 It shall be a condition of the contract that the goods will conform to the requirements of the order in all respects (and, in particular, as to quantity, quality, fitness, description and specification, and the sample supplied, if any) and with any statements or undertakings made by the supplier or its servants or agents prior to the giving of the order.

9.2 If the supplier fails to complete this order strictly according to the requirements of Clause 9.1 above, or in strict accordance with these conditions, or the goods are in any way defective then, notwithstanding any other rights that we may have, we shall in each case have the following rights:

9.2.1 To cancel the order and to reject the goods and to purchase them from a third party; and;

9.2.2 To call upon the supplier to rectify the defects or replace the goods (at our option) at the supplier's own expense.

9.3 All the obligations in this Clause 9 shall further apply to any such rectified or replacement goods. The supplier shall reimburse us with any additional costs which we may suffer as a result of such failure or defect, and shall indemnify us against any and all actions, proceedings, damages, costs, claims, demands and expenses whatsoever, whether direct or consequential, resulting therefrom.

10. Separate Deliveries

Where the order is for the purchase of goods by a number of separate deliveries, we shall be entitled at our option to treat a breach by the supplier under Condition 8 in respect of any delivery either as a breach of contract in respect of that delivery only, entitling us to cancel the order in respect of that delivery, or as a breach of contract affecting the whole order, entitling us to cancel the whole order.

11. Force Majeure

In the event of the supplier's performance of the order being prevented, interrupted, hindered or delayed by a cause beyond the supplier's control (in which event it shall give written notice of such cause within 7 days of its occurrence) or in the event of our being unable to take delivery of the goods at the date scheduled for delivery for any reason beyond our control (including lockouts) we shall be entitled at our option either to stipulate a later date for the delivery of the goods or to cancel the order without liability on our part if execution of the order at a later date would in our opinion not meet the purpose for which it was placed.

12. Design and Tools

All blueprints, designs, drawings and instructions supplied by us, and all tools, dies, jigs, moulds, and the like specially manufactured in connection with the order (whether supplied by us or not) for the manufacture of the goods shall be our property and shall be surrendered to us forthwith on demand. The supplier shall not furnish any third party with our blueprints, designs, drawings or instructions, or any goods made in accordance therewith, without the prior written approval of our Purchasing Department.

13. Indemnity

The supplier shall indemnify us against all actions, proceedings, damages, costs, claims, demands and expenses whatsoever in respect of loss of life or personal injury or damage to property resulting, either directly or indirectly, from any defect in the goods supplied or from compliance with any instructions given by the supplier in connection therewith or from the execution of any work covered by the order, unless such loss of life or personal injuries or damage to property is directly and exclusively attributable to our sub-contractors or to those in our or their employ.

14. Cancellation of Order

Without prejudice to any other rights that we may have, we shall be entitled to cancel the order at any time (without payment of any penalty to the supplier) by written notice if:

I. the supplier shall go into liquidation; or

II. the supplier shall have an administration order made against it; or

III. a distress or execution shall be levied or enforced upon any of the property of the supplier and is not paid out or discharged within 14 days; or

IV. an encumbrancer shall take possession or a receiver shall be appointed of the undertaking of the supplier or any of the supplier's property; or

V. if the supplier stops payment of any debt due to us or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on its business or pay its debts as and when they fall due.

In any other case we shall be entitled to cancel this order at any time by giving written notice to the supplier in which event we shall be bound to pay a reasonable sum for any work already completed but shall otherwise be free from liability.

15. Intellectual Property

All of supplier's work results arising from or in connection with the order shall be assigned and transferred by supplier to us. At no additional cost, supplier will grant us a license to use additional or background intellectual property owned by supplier that is necessary or incident to the reasonably intended use or application of the supplies. To the extent that the results are embodied in reports, data carriers, samples or other documents, we shall become the unrestricted owner thereof at the time they arise. Supplier warrants that all supplies or other deliverables provided under the order will not infringe any intellectual property rights of any third party.

16. Testing

We shall have a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the goods (or, if applicable, the date, if later, of completion of installation by the supplier) within which to test the goods. In the meantime, we shall not be deemed to have accepted the goods or be liable to pay for the same.

17. Breach of Warranty

Without prejudice to any other remedy available to us under these Conditions or at law, the supplier shall indemnify us against all actions, proceedings, damages, costs, claims, demands and expenses whatsoever, whether direct, indirect, special or consequential, arising out of any breach by the supplier of any of the supplier's warranties or obligations herein contained.

18. Government Contracts

Where the goods or services ordered are to be used in carrying out, or in connection with, a Government contract or subcontract as shown overleaf, the order is subject to any special conditions stipulated by the Government Department concerned and to these Conditions (so far as they are not inconsistent with such special conditions). Details of such conditions will be supplied on request.

19. Statutory Requirements

The supplier warrants that all goods and services supplied pursuant to the order comply with all applicable statutory requirements and in particular (but without prejudice to the foregoing) that the supplier has complied with his obligations under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 of 1993, and with all relevant packaging and transport regulations, applicable SANS Standards, Hazardous Chemical Substance Act and regulations and that they be designed, constructed or installed in such manner and with such tools as to be without risk to health and safety and that we be provided with adequate information as to their proper use and storage.

20. Anti-corruption and Bribery

The supplier agrees that it will not directly or indirectly, pay, offer, promise to pay or authorize the payment of, any monies or financial or other advantage in violation of any anti-corruption laws and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 1977. Further, the supplier confirms that it has not taken nor will take directly or indirectly, any action that would cause JM PLC's officers, directors, employees and/or affiliates to be in violation of any anti-corruption laws including but not limited to the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 1977. In circumstances where we determine, in good faith, that the supplier has breached this provision we will be entitled, in addition to our other rights, to terminate any contract with the supplier by giving written notice with immediate effect. The supplier will indemnify us from any claims, suits, investigations, penalties and fines of any kind arising from any breach of this provision. This Clause shall survive the termination of any contract.

21. Law and Jurisdiction

The construction, validity and performance of all our contracts shall be governed by English law and the parties submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales, however nothing in these conditions shall prevent a party from applying to any court of competent jurisdiction for interim relief and/or conservatory measures.

22. Payment No Waiver

Payments by us for any goods or services ordered shall not constitute a waiver of any of our rights, nor shall such payment terminate any of the supplier's obligations.

23. Headings

The headings to the paragraphs of these Conditions are inserted only for convenience of reference and shall not affect their interpretation.

24. Notices

Notices must be sent by an internationally recognised courier to the parties registered offices and shall be deemed upon receipt as evidenced by a signed delivery note or equivalent document.

25. Third Party Rights

Obligations Act shall apply to these conditions.

Date Issued: 7 June 2013